

Auswertung - Ohrhänger

Teilaufgabe 1

|         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
|---------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| RICHTIG | 5 UND Lösungsweg, der den Drahtbedarf für einen Ohrhänger (18 cm) und die Gesamtlänge des Drahts (90 cm) berücksichtigt. Beispiel(e) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• <math>3 \cdot 5 \text{ cm} + 3 \text{ cm} = 18 \text{ cm}; 90 \text{ cm} : 18 \text{ cm} = 5</math></li> <li>• <math>5 \cdot 3 + 5 \cdot 3 \cdot 5 = 90</math></li> <li>• <math>3 + 3 + 3 + 3 + 3 + 15 + 15 + 15 + 15 + 15 = 90</math></li> <li>• (Grenzfall)<math>5 \cdot 3 + 5 \cdot 3 \cdot 5</math></li> <li>• (Grenzfall)<math>3 + 15 + 3 + 15 + 3 + 15 + 3 + 15 + 3 + 15</math></li> </ul> |
|---------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

Teilaufgabe 2

|         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
|---------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| RICHTIG | 4 UND Lösungsweg, bei dem mittels des Drahtbedarfs für einen Ohrhänger (12 cm + 3 cm) die Länge einer Dreiecksseite (4 cm) errechnet wird. ODER Es wird nachgewiesen, dass bei einer Länge der Dreiecksseiten von 4 cm für 6 Ohrhänger exakt 90 cm Draht verbraucht werden. Beispiel(e) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• <math>90 \text{ cm} - 18 \text{ cm} = 72 \text{ cm}; 72 \text{ cm} : 6 = 12 \text{ cm}; 12 \text{ cm} : 3 = 4 \text{ cm}</math></li> <li>• <math>90 : 6 = 15; 15 - 3 = 12; 12 : 3 = 4</math></li> <li>• <math>3 \text{ mal } 4 \text{ cm} = 12 \text{ cm}; 12 \text{ cm} + 3 \text{ cm} = 15 \text{ cm}; 6 \text{ mal } 15 \text{ cm} = 90 \text{ cm}</math></li> </ul> |
|---------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|